

SOUTH AFRICAN WRESTLING FEDERATION

Policy for associate membership of the SAWF – 17 JANUARY 2004

1 Membership

Wrestling and other sports associations over which the SAWF can exercise limited or no control may become associate members of the SAWF

2 Types of associate members

2.1 Associate wrestling associations

Any active wrestling association, established and controlled in terms of a statute or other regulation, may affiliate with the SAWF as an associate member

2.2 Other associate members

Any sports association or sports body identifying with wrestling in any way such as offering a hand of friendship, providing advice or services like sportswear or transport arrangements, may become associate members of the SAWF

3 Qualification for associate membership

3.1 Associate wrestling associations

3.1.1 Those wrestling associations not qualifying for full membership in terms of the constitution of the SAWF, with active wrestlers, councils, committees and other administrators etc., to the satisfaction of the executive management of the SAWF, may affiliate as associate wrestling associations;

3.1.2 Such associate wrestling association is allowed to maintain its identity, register its own wrestlers and officials and compete under its own name, subject to the other stipulations in this document and all terms of the constitution of the SAWF

3.2 Other associate members

As mentioned in paragraph 2.2

4 Requirements for associate membership

4.1 Associate wrestling associations

4.1.1 Shall have at least 30 active wrestlers;

4.1.2 Shall have sufficient registered officials, coaches and managers to handle the number of registered wrestlers;

4.1.3 Shall be grouped in at least one club;

4.1.4 The organization which is in control of the affiliated associate wrestling association which was established in terms of a statute or other regulation, shall annually confirm in writing when the wrestling association applies for membership, that the association concerned is, or shall be in a position to meet its financial responsibilities

4.2 Other associate members

Must be a sports body which identifies in some way with wrestling as mentioned in paragraph 2.2

5 Limitations

As stipulated by the constitution of the SAWF.

6 Affiliation and other fees payable to the SAWF

6.1 Affiliated associate wrestling associations

6.1.1 90% of the annual affiliation fees payable by affiliated wrestling associations; and

6.1.2 100% of all other fees payable by affiliated wrestling associations

6.2 Other affiliated associate members

50% of the annual affiliation fees payable by affiliated wrestling associations

Compiled by the legal advisory committee, recommended and approved by the executive management and approved by the general management on 17 January 2004.

Original document signed and kept on file by the secretary-general.

Signed:

DAVE VAN DER MERWE
PRESIDENT

12th JUNE 2004

MANIE VAN DEN BERG
SECRETARY-GENERAL