SASCOC COMMUNIQUE ALL AFRICA GAMES 2019

We would like to inform the everybody with regards our participation in the All Africa Games 2019. During the SASCOC General meeting held on 8 June 2019, Federations were informed that SASCOC will re-consider participating in the All Africa due to financial constraints.

The SAWF received confirmation of the final decision regarding our participation in the All Africa Games 2019 on the 23 June 2019. The attached communique from SASCOC explains why only certain sport codes will be included and why the decision was taken. In order to cut costs SASCOC decided to only take the sporting codes that need to participate at these games in order to assist in their attempt to qualify and/or gain ranking points for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. The All-Africa Games aren't part of the UWW qualification criteria for Tokyo 2020 therefore wrestling wasn't included.

The policy of SASCOC doesn't allow for team members to fund their own tour and participation, which means that members can't pay for themselves to participate in Multi-coded Games.

Please don't hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Kind Regards
